Naam

Arnab Chakraborty a singing sensation from the City of Joy Kolkata is here to rock the world. Arnab climbs another step in the success ladder with his debut solo Indipop album Naam, released on Times Music. It has music by Dony Hazarika and lyrics by Amit Singh and Amitabh Bhattacharya. In Naam he presents a pleasant shower of melodies sprinkled with the flavour of Indian folk mixed with western beats and styles inspired from genres such as reggae and country. The enchanting rhythm and the sweet yet engaging mystical voice of Arnab tug at every heart gently asking them to delve into the intensity of the songs. The underlying theme of romance unites these melodies. The title song Naam is based on the folk tradition of Bengal called Baul and is devoted to the Eternal Truth - Life. Other clinchers are the romantic folk song from Assam - Zehen, the groovy Bhojpuri song - Joganiya, and Aietbaar - an Indian interpretation of a western country ballad. All in all this is an album, which will captivate every mood of the listeners.
