

Arnab Chakrabarty bags the title of Kishoreda's Heir Apparent

As the Sony's music based reality show K for Kishore has entered its final round, our sources inform us that it is Arnab Chakraborty, who walked away with the title, 'heir apparent.'

The three finalists Arnab Chakraborty, Chintan Balkiwala and Chetan Rana were performing and battling it out in front of the three resident judges as well as 10 judges Anu Malik, Jatin Pandit, Nagesh Kukunoor, Hema Sardesai, Kumar Sanu and Mahaguru Asha Bhonsle.

The three finalists will perform on Friday in the episode which will be a trail grand finale. The sneak peak into the finale will be aired on Friday, May 2 at 9 pm. The Grand Finale will be aired on Sunday, May 4 at 8:00 pm. There will be 10 performances on the starry event along with the announcement of the winner. The prize package includes a cash prize of 15 lakhs and an opportunity to cut an album with Saragamapa music company. Apart from this one of the three finalists will get an opportunity to sing in Nagesh Kukunoor's forthcoming flick based on Kishore Kumar's life.

Our heartiest congratulations to Arnab.